'Mama Mia Giallo' has a nice sweet flavor that is excellent either fresh or roasted. For gardeners eager for their harvest, this pepper offers ripe fruits 85 days after transplanting, making it one of the earliest yellow sweet peppers on the market. An added bonus is the somewhat compact 24" plant that takes up less space and offers disease tolerance to Tobacco Mosaic virus.

Chef's Choice Orange F1

2014 AAS winner 'Chef's Choice Orange' F1 is a hybrid derived from the popular heirloom 'Amana Orange' which matures late in the season. Excellent for soups and sauces, the intense color does not fade or discolor when cooked. Home chefs are going to love cooking with this variety as well as eating it fresh.

Pepper Black Olive

2012 All American Selection winner. AAS judges said this entry was a standout, especially in the southern gardens where heat was a major presence during the 2011 trials. All season long this beauty kept its upright habit with nicely draping leaves and dark purple/black fruit which appeared in small clusters along the stems. As summer progresses, the fruits mature to red giving a beautiful contrast against the dark purple foliage and bright purple flowers. Retailers and growers can sell this multi-use ornamental as a 20" border plant, a great color splash for containers or as a cut flower in mixed bouquets.

Pepper Mexibell F1
