CASPER

Casper is a white-skinned ornamental pumpkin with thick pale-orange flesh that is 8 to 12 inches in diameter. Fruit weigh 10 to 16 pounds, have excellent eating quality, and mature in 90 days. The skin has less bluing than many other white pumpkin varieties, and the handle is tan with a corky texture.

CINDERELLA

Cinderella is another lovely French heirloom which was first offered in the U.S. by W.A. Burpee in 1883. Red-orange fruits are 6 to 8 inches deep and 18 inches in diameter. Cinderella pumpkins range from 15 to 25 pounds, and are spectacular for fall color and decorations.

FAIRYTALE

A traditional variety from the south of France, Fairytale is gorgeous, big flat fruits that are heavily ribbed and look similar to wheels of cheese. Fruit average 20 pounds and ripen to a rich brown when fully ripe. The deep-orange flesh is very fine grained, one of the best for baking. This long-season variety matures in one 110 days.

GALUEX D'EYSINES

Raised bumps over the skin surface makes this quite a novelty. The pumpkin skin is pink with beige. Fruit are shaped like a wheel of cheese. This variety was unknown to the U.S. until 1996. A French heirloom that matures in 95 to 100 days, Galuex D'Eysines will add color and texture to any fall display. Remember this variety for your next summer plantings.

JARRADALE

A uniquely blue skinned pumpkin, Jarradale usually weighs 7 to 8 pounds with a 10 inch diameter. Maturing in 95 days, this variety has excellent flesh quality and is a must for any market grower wanting to add color to displays and packs.

MARINA DE CHIOGGIA

This variety is one of the most unique looking Italian heirloom we have seen. From the Chioggia region in Italy, which is known for very flavorful vegetables, this turban-type squash with warts on its dark-green skin adds diversity to any growers stand. It is well suited for coastal production but can be grown almost anywhere.

MINI MAGIC F1

Mini Magic is a component blend of three miniature hubbard squash. All varieties are 3- to 5-pound fruit and have semi-bush habits. You can purchase this variety mixed or separately. Ask for Blue Magic, Orange Magic, or Green Magic if you wish to plant separately. Hubbard squash are prized for their fine-grained flesh and nutty flavor.

TRIMABLE

Another unique heirloom from Australia, Trimable has an incredible shelflife of up to two years. This three-chambered blue squash has wonderful flavor and flesh quality. The vigorous vines protect these beauties well. A great eating winter squash, Trimable also looks good on display.

WHITE ACE F1

White Ace is a true white acorn. The fruit weigh about 2 pounds and have excellent shape and uniformity. Flesh is sweet and full flavored; it's excellent baked. Plant White Ace with gold, green, or multi-colored acorns for a striking variation in the produce bin. Fruit mature in 70 days.
